Community Forum for Staff & Faculty

The second Community Forum of the 2018-19 academic year will take place on Friday, Jan. 11, from 9 – 10 a.m. in the Hoffman Auditorium of the Bruyette Athenaeum. President Rhona Free and members of the administration will provide faculty and staff with University updates. Additionally, new employees will be introduced and time will be provided for announcements.

After the Forum, you are invited to a welcome reception for:

- Rayna Dyton-White, Director of Diversity and Inclusion/Title IX Coordinator
- Lucy Lucker, Associate Vice President for Finance/Controller
- Derrick McBride, Director of Public Safety; and
- Melanie Sinche, Director of the Career Development Center

It will be held in the lobby of Lynch Hall, from 10 – 11 a.m., and is sponsored by these offices: President, Provost, and Student Affairs.

And finally, please mark your calendars for the final Community Forum of the year, which will be held Monday, May 6 (and will include the Employee Recognition event).

Contact: Ruth Foxman, executive assistant to the President/secretary to the Board of Trustees at rfoxman@usj.edu or 860.231.5221.

Research Participants Needed

If you:

- Identify as a Latina woman
- Took USJ undergraduate courses after the age of 25
- Attended USJ to work toward the completion of your first undergraduate degree,
- regardless of current degree completion status between 2007-2018
- Were enrolled in USJ's Program for Adult Learners (PAL)

The Adelante Research Project wants to hear your story! This research study examines the college experiences of Latina adult college students, how they navigate their return to college, and their pursuit of degree completion.
