Notice of Rights Under Title IX

Parenting or Pregnancy

Pursuant to the United States Department of Education, Title IX provides protections and accommodations for students who are parenting or pregnant. Parenting and pregnant students are entitled to excused absences related to pregnancy, child birth, post-birth recovery, recovery from procedures or incidents that do not result in a birthed child, adoption, and medical needs of the child for the first year after birth or adoption.

Lactation Rooms are located on the first floor of McDonough Hall next to the Registrar's office, and on the second floor of Lourdes Hall, end of the hallway. Both spaces are equipped with a chair, refrigerator and sink. Please contact facilities or the Title IX Coordinator if these items are missing or in need of repairs. If the doors to either rooms are locked, please contact public safety for access.

Gender Based Violence

Title IX provides protections and accommodations for students who are victims of: intimate/domestic partner violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Please note that the event(s) can have occurred off campus or in the past. If this is currently affecting your school work or, you are missing classes and assignments to handle matters related to these incident(s), we implore you to contact the Title IX Coordinator to discuss academic accommodations and resources. Faculty and Staff may not keep this information confidential, they are required to report disclosures and concerns to the Title IX Coordinator. Please see below for confidential resources located on campus and in the community.
